FLECTRIC LINE COMING NEARER

Application Made by Lagoon Road for Right of Way Through City.

GOES TO CITY ATTORNEY AND COMMITTEE OF WHOLE

Garbage Contract Remains With Lagoon; Manufacturers Protest Against License.

The first decisive step towards extending the Salt Lake & Ogden railway south and thus connecting Ogden and Salt Lake City with Provo and all intermediate points by an electric line was taken Monday night in the submitting to the city council by the Salt Lake & Ogden Railway company of an application for a right of way through the city. The cytopeed franchise was referred to the city attorney and the committee of the whole.

The company asks for a right of way for both steam and electric cars as follows: Commoncing at the property line near the northeast corner of led 1. block St. plat A. Mr. Hall's Resolution.

The finance and salaries committee recommended that Mr. Hall's resolution that the auditor charge off from assets of the city all general uncollectible taxes assessed prior to 1967 and water rates uncollected prior to 1968-1969 be filed, and this report was adopted. The committee also reported that it is desirable to retain these accounts in their present form, but that the city and county accounts ought to be reconciled by examination and correction, and it suggested that the city treasurer report the flat and meter water rates uncollectible and that he be directed to charge off such assessments. The auditor will examine the county's accounts for taxes and reconcile the city accounts with them.

The Davis County Telephone company must get a franchise if it wants, to operate in Sult Lake City. This company enters the city over the Salt Lake & Ogden Railway company's poles, having only three phones here, but the city actionney was instructed to notify it that it must apply for a franchise within fifteen days; otherwise the street supervisor will remove its wires from the Lagoon road's poles inside the city limits.

P. J. Moran's contract to repair the paved streets for $1.95 a square yard grouted and $1.80 a yard ungrouted went to the engineering committee.

Building Inspector Hirth reported that 264 building permits, calling for an expenditure of $1.282,700, and twenty electric sign permits were issued in the quarter ending June 30. The fees of the office for that period were $915.35.

On account of the additions to the city and the increased business of the department, the oil inspector and sealer of weights and measures. J. D. Beasley wants an increase in salary from $900 to $1500 a year. His request went to the board of estimates and apportionments.

No Change in Garbage.

No Change in Garbage.

Despite all the agitation for a new gar-bage station hear the Saltair road, just west of the Jordan river, and an incin-erating garbage plant, the Salt Lake & Ogden Railway company will continue to haul the city's garbage away. The re-newal of the contract with the Lagoon road was approved, on the recommendanaut the city's garbage away. The re-newal of the contract with the Lagoon road was approved, on the recommenda-tion of the sanitary and markets commit-tee. The price remains the same, $8.50 a car, unless the railroad company puts on regular steel garbage cars, in which event the price will be $12.50 a car. The steel cars, however, have a capacity of at least 50 per cent more than the ordi-lar addition.

at least 50 per cent more than the ordinary garbage cars now in use. In addition, the railroad company will pay one-half the salary of the men stationed at the garbage loading station near Warm Springs by the city.

At the recommendation of the sanitary committee, the petition of Dr. B. A. Gemmell, representing the Spiril of Liberty chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, for the establishment of a bubbling drinking fountain near the public library on State street. In the place of the present unsanitary fountain was referred to the city engineer for an estimate of the cost.

The sum of $1000 was appropriated to clean out the spring and tunnel in City Creek canyon to increase the flow of water.

Several councilmen are of the opinion that a franchise for railway trackage annot be granted to private enterprises, and the petition of the Sait Lake Hardware company for a spur track on Third West street between Second and Third South streets, was held back, with the agreement that when the franchise is made to run to the Oregon Short Line instead of the hardware company it will be granted.

The contract with Glikerson & Long on sewer extension No. 246, who claimed that they bid too low, went back to the board of public works with orders to rendvertise for bids.

Manufacturers Protest.

The Manufacturers' association's protest against the special license ordinance, requiring the manufacturers to pay a $16 license annually on each delivery wagon operated by them, went to the license committee, before which the protestants will be heard. The manufacturers say that the measure is along the lines of class legislation and that it tends to discourage the establishment of factories and mills in Salt Lake City.

A partial estimate of $211.96, in favor of the J. B. Skelton Publishing company for printing annual reports, was held up at the instance of Mr. Moreton.

Nick Filicitt's application for the transfer of a restall fiquor leense from 527. West Second South street, and Bianco & Currain's application for a license at 217 West Second South street, were laid over to allow owners of adjacent property a chance to protest.

Pay rolls for the first half of the month, amounting to $19.964.84, were approved.

HEAVY ELECTRICAL STORM MONDAY NIGHT

During the heavy electrical storm Monday night, lightning struck the wires of the Telluride Power Transmission company at a point north of the city and for a few minutes put the downtown street car system out of commission. Part of the current developed by the Telluride company serves as an auxiliary for the Utah Light and Railway company, and when the bolt struck at about 8:50 o'clock, a short directly was formed, putting the feed wire temporarily out of commission. The slight damage caused was repaired by 9 o'clock.

Jupiter Piuvius was not in evidence, but this was made up for by a continual discharge of lightning boits. The whole city was lighted up between 8 and 9 o'clock by frequent intermittent finshes of electricity.

It was a jolly bunch, and in charge were Exalted Euler John Morton, chair-man of the excursion committee; B. H. Doolan and J. C. Earthel of the Santa Monica lodge, the latter being a former member of the Salt Lake lodge and well member of the Salt Lake lodge and wel known here.

While the crowd was not so great as expected, the gentlemen explained that this was the first excursion, and as i was to be an annual event, the number would undoubtedly increase with each year. It was the first time many of the party had ever visited this country, and the programme mapped out would make a good impression upon all and be a lasting advertisement to the city.

After the visitors had rested, they were taken to the tabernacle for a special organ recital, and Prof. McClellan delighted his andience with a number of fine selections. Then they were taken to the Elks club on State street, where all the local Elks and ladies made the visitors feel welcome. An elegant spread was prepared for the occasion, and the local reception committees quite outdid themselves in catering to the wants of the guests. Until late in the afternoon it was "open house" in the club, and much music and joility followed. William A. and M. J. Crowley convulsed the crowd with vaudeville stunts, and music was rendered by Mrs. Kathieen Fitzpatrick Atkins and Miss Venus Romney. It was a sort of "get-acquainted" affair, and, as the Elks club will be the headquarters all week, it proved a most successful introductory to the day and the week's doings.

In the afternoon the local and visiting Elks went to the lake, where they took a bath, had supper, and at evening danced to their hearts' content. They returned to the city tired, but very much pleased with their first day in Sall Lake.

city health commissioner will serve a formal notice to close on the lesses of the grounds.

Health Commissioner Dr. S. G. Paul at first pronounced the farmers' public market all right from a sanitary standpoint, but recently the place has become filthy, owing to the advancing season bringing with it overcrowding, and the proprietor either has been an able to keep the premises clean, or has become a little careless. Two weeks ago the council instructed the police chief to look after the place and close it if necessary, but the chief apparently was afraid of exceeding his authority, and nothing was done until Dr. Paul took action Monday.

The Eccles-Browning market now is about the only place open for the farmers, but Dr. Paul said Monday that he will not be a party to the driving of the farmers into this market. The he will not be a party to the driving of the farmers into this market. The Eccles-Browning market has been offered to the farmers free this year, but it is the intention of the promoters, it is said, to make a charge next year that will bring compensation for this.

BAN ON PERSONAL BATHING SUITS

Saltair Beach Employees Humiliate Women Who Bring Own Bathing Clothes.

REFUSE THEM ADMISSION AFTER TICKETS ARE BOUGHT

Decline to Let Them Pass Unless They Publicly Exhibit Bathing Suits.

If you possess a bathing suit and take it with you when you go to Saltair, should you visit that resort, ou cannot take it with you to your oath room unless you remove the suit from its covering and make a public exhibition of it to the surly attendant at the turnstile at the entrance to the bath room pier. This, too, after you have purchased a ticket which entitles you to a bath room and to one of the old, worn out bath suits which the management hands out to you.

agement hands out to you. No Personal Bathing Suits.

Sunday two prominent women of this sinday two prominent women of this city, both heads of departments in one of the large department stores in this city, visited Saltair. They went there for the purpose of bathing in the waters of the great salt sea. They were willing to risk their lives by riding in the ramshackle cars to the resort; willing to take the risk of having slivers of pine from the board walks penetrate their shoes as they walked over the platforms to the bath room; willing to take chances with the spiders that infest the resort, but they did not care to run any risk by using one of the bathing suits which the beach management hands out for the 25 cents paid for admission to the bath room pavilion or the extra 25 cents for the same kind of a suit handed down from another shelf, hence they carried their own bathing suits.

Deputy State Insurance Commissioner Willard Done has received many inquiries concerning the Western Five Insurance company of Ogden, and has written a number of letters to various parts of the United States containing a warning against the company as it has been disbarred from doing business in this state. A suit is now pending in Weber county against the company to recover $5000 on an insurance policy, and the secretary of the concern is under arrest upon a criminal charge.
